Genoa, June 11. This Morning the Princeſs of Modena proceeded on her Journey from hence: As the Ceremonial could not be adjuſted, the Balls and other Diverſions deſigned for her were forborn. The French Gallies which came with her, are making ready to put to Sea To-Morrow to return to France; but their Admiral the Chevalier d'Orleans, having been indiſpoſed for ſome Days, will remain here till he recovers his Health.

Berne, June 12. The Deputies appointed by this State to attend the Biſhop of Porentru concerning the Affairs of Bienne, ſet out the 7th Inſtant for the Execution of their Commiſſion. The ſame Day our Sovereign Council aſſembled to chuſe its Deputies for the next General Diet of Midſummer. One of the Treaſurers of this State, and another Member of the Little Council, were accordingly named for that Purpoſe; though uſually one of the Avoyers or Chief Magiſtrates of the Canton, who is out of Office, is the firſt Repreſentative for the State at the ſaid Diet. But he happening not to be able to undertake the Journey by reaſon of his great Age and Infirmities, the ſaid Treaſurer ſupplies his Room. Repeated Orders have lately been ſent to all the Bailiffs of this Canton, to ſeize one Merveilleux of Neufchatel; who, contrary to the late Proclamations of this State, has liſted Soldiers in theſe Parts for the Service of the Miſſiſſippi Company.

This Day Sir Robert Sutton had his firſt Audience of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

Whitehall, June 13. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to create Sir Marcus Beresford of Curraghmore in the County of Waterford in Ireland, Baronet, a Baron and Viſcount of that Kingdom, by the Name Stile and Title of Baron Beresford of Beresford in the County of Cavan, and Viſcount Tyrone.

This Day the Lord Kinſale was preſented by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the King, who was pleaſed to receive him very graciouſly, and he had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand, and to aſſert the ancient Right of his Family of being covered in his Majeſty's Preſence.

John Rogerſon, Eſq; is made Attorney General of the Kingdom of Ireland, in the Room of George Gore, Eſq; who is made one of the Judges of the Common Pleas in that Kingdom.

Whitehall, June 17. On the 14th in the Evening His Majeſty went from St. James's to Greenwich, and early the next Morning embarked on the Carolina Yacht for Holland.
